Potato Lake Trail

1. Potato Lake Trail
    The trailhead is located approx. 3 miles off of U.S. Hwy 550 on Lime Creek Road (Forest Service Road #591). The road is not maintained and very rugged so 4x4 wheel drive and high clearance is highly recommended. To drive Lime Creek Road in its entirety requires some skill and nerves of steel as there are several areas with vertical drop-offs and no guard rails.

    The hike itself is relatively easy with an out & back main trial and an optional loop trail around Potato Lake. Hiking is exceptional in the fall due to the abundance of Aspen Trees.

2. Cascade Creek
   Parking is approx ½ mile from the turn-off from U.S. Hwy 550. Waterfalls are visible about half way and at the end of the trial.

3. Engineer Mountain
   Access to the trail head is approximately ¾ miles north of Lime Creek Road (Forest Service Road #591) on the west side. Parking is approximately 700 ft from the highway.

4. Coal Bank Pass
   Parking is located on the west side of U.S. Highway 550 at Coal Bank Pass with restrooms available on the east side. This trail is a shorter more direct route to Engineer Mountain in comparison to Engineer Mountain Trail. Steep inclines at the start and end of the trail.

5. Coal Creek
   Limited parking available at the junction of Coal Creek and U.S. Hwy 550. Relatively steep and consistent hike to the junction of Engineer Mountain trail.
